

How to reach the Schloss (registration, conference hall) coming from the train station?

A detailed map can be found on the next page.

After leaving the hall of the train station and passing the station square one takes the street on the left hand side of the building opposite side of the square. This street is called Richard-Wagner-Straße.

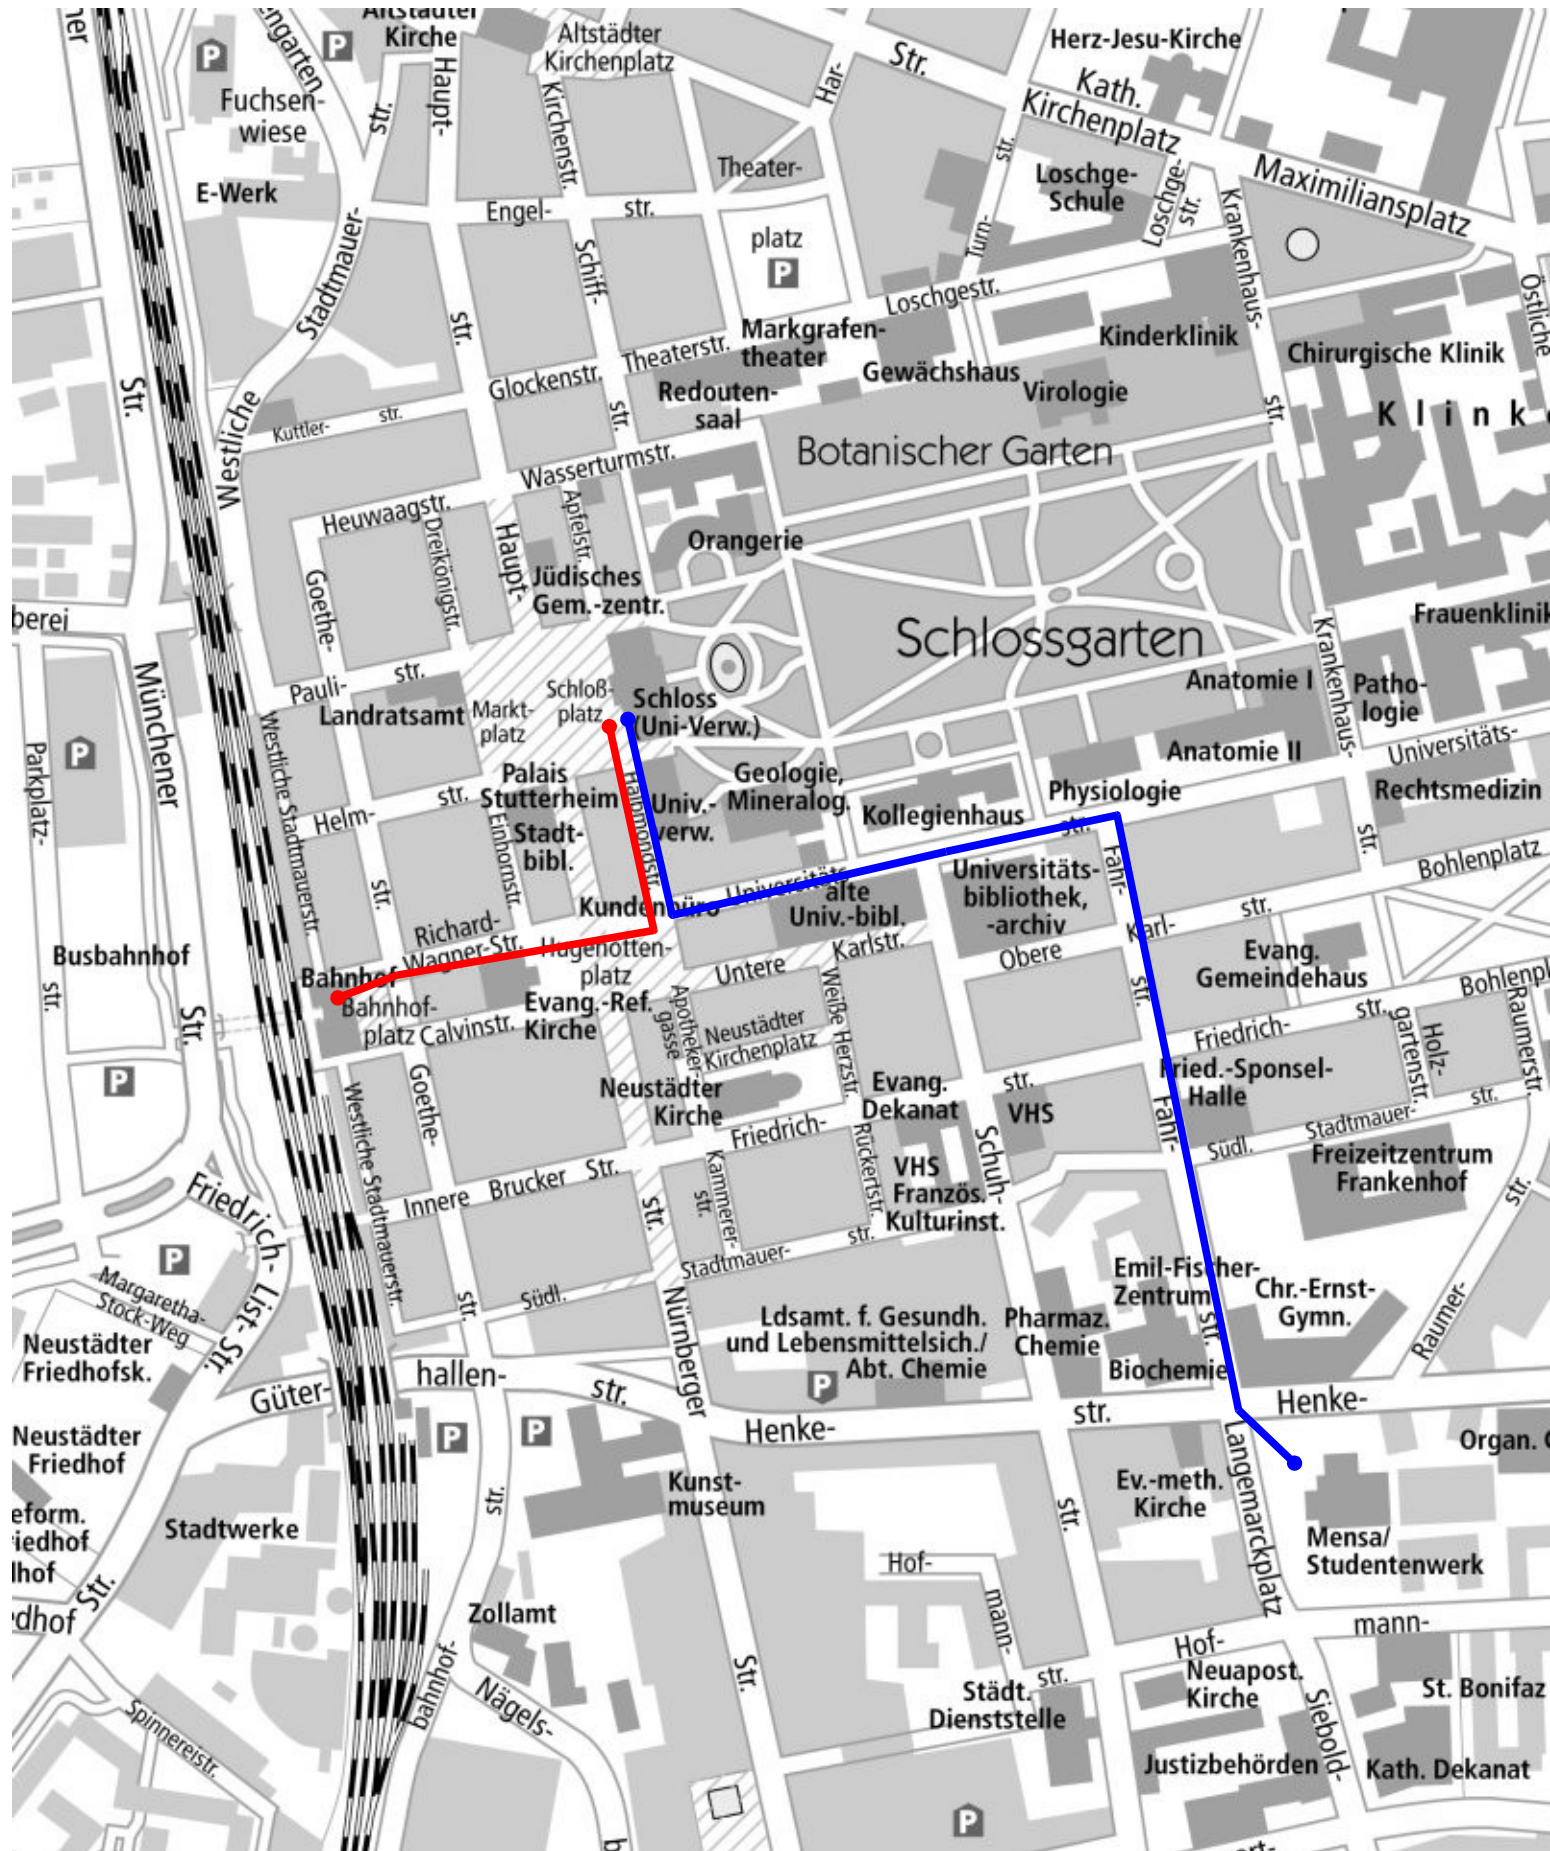

Going straight ahead you will pass after about 100m the main bus station (situated on the right) and cross the pedestrian zone at the same time. After a few meters you will have to turn left into the Halbmondstraße.

After about 100m you reach the Schlossplatz and find the the Schloss on the right hand side.

The way described above will be marked with signs along the streets.

With the help of the city map you are certainly free to choose any other way.

red line: reaching the Schloss from the train station blue line: reaching the Mensa from the Schloss

How to reach the Mensa (lunch restaurant) coming from the Schloss (conference hall)?

A detailed map can be found on the previous page.

Leaving the Schloss you will have to take the Halbmondstraße on the left. After having reached the Hugentottenplatz at the following crossroads, take the Universitätsstraße to the left (i.e. rather east direction). You have to turn right after about 200m into the Fahrstraße. Follow this street straight on until you reach the Henkestraße, which crosses at the second traffic light. On the opposite site to the left is the Langemarckplatz (see picture), where the Mensa is located.

The way described above will be marked with signs along the streets.

With the help of the city map you are certainly free to choose any other way.

